DarkLight – Commando Inc 1

By C.J. Daniels

(Windham, NH February 17, 2007)— Dark Light-Commando Inc 1 by C.J. Daniels, published by iUniverse, Inc., the leading provider of publishing technology solutions for authors, announced today...

The release of a new series charting new territories of science fiction and horror is here! DarkLight - Commando Inc. 1, by C. J. Daniels, the first of an exciting new series!

It's the future, and space is not safe. Raiders terrorize the known shipping lanes and a new order needs to be restored. Commando Inc., from a secret military base, led by former covert military operative Mark Carson and his team aboard the sentient starship Pulsar are all that stand between future prosperity and a new dark age for humanity.

Now a new horror. One that the brave Commando Inc. team cannot possibly comprehend or understand is upon them. An age-old genetic aberration has escaped its outer dimensional prison to seek revenge on the universe and anyone that stands its way. With an army of shape shifting mutants, can Mark Carson prevent the annihilation of the all that he holds dear? The horror has begun, time is running out and no one is who they appear to be. Horror and action have a new name... DarkLight!

With few exceptions the successful combination of the horror and sci-fi genres have only existed in few places. The characters, as the title suggests are true to each end of the scale. "Dark Light" got its name from the conflict caused between the age old battle between good and evil. Gray area exists, but the stakes are the extinction of the human race and the "clock is ticking".

Sure to be a crowd pleaser, DarkLight has it all. A page turner from the beginning, Dark Light has large amounts of above the rim action, excitement, romance, and horror. Space is not a safe place to travel and there is a new breed of hero there to police it. Commando Inc, a paramilitary organization dedicated to galactic peace is there to react to whatever hot spot explodes. Whether terrorism, kidnapping or galactic destruction, this heroic and diverse ensemble put their lives on the line each and every time out.

The author of Dark Light has almost as interesting a life as the characters that he created. C.J. Daniels, a recent survivor of colon cancer, has been a lover of both the good science fiction story and horror. C.J. with wife, two children, two dogs, and a cat certainly has the chaotic environment. But there is a rhyme to the reason. "It seems that every cliché has been used before. The secret is taking all the things that the reader loves in each genre and then create a world where they feel comfortable, but enthralled by the characters and the situations presented. If there is a conflict worth following and good characters to embrace, the trip is worth the time. It almost becomes the literary version of comfort food. Accessible to anyone, the universe that I have presented is almost like a comfortable pair of slippers". A sequel is on the way, so stay tuned
